EVELYN THAW AGAIN RECALLED

THE DEFENSE SPRUNG THIS
AS A SURPRISE YESTER-DAY MORNING.

THEY NEVER SPEAK
AS THEY PASS BY

THAT IS EVANS AND JEROME —SHOWS HATRED FOR ALIENIST.

White Told May McKenzie He Would Get Evelyn Back
From Thaw.

New York, Feb. 19.—The usual crowd, largely composed of lawyers, filled the court room when the Thaw case opened this morning. Dr. Britton D. Evans, the defense's alienist, was the first of the characters of the case to appear.

When Mr. Jerome arrived he passed close to the expert, but did not speak. Thaw entered the court room when called, with his usual quick step, and at once began an animated conversation with Dr. Evans.

A decided surprise was sprung by the defense in recalling Mrs. Evelyn Nesbit Thaw to the stand immediately after court convened.

Mrs. Thaw identified forty-two letters as written by White.

Mrs. Thaw said she had a second operation on January, 1905, which was paid for by Thaw.

Mrs. Thaw testified May MacKenzie told her Stanford White said the love between Thaw and his wife would not last, and he would get her back. She said she met White at May MacKenzie's bedside in 1904, and he attempted to embrace her.

Mrs. Thaw also testified Thaw told her her illness was due to White.

Object to Thaw's Defense.

The defense in the Thaw case having practically concluded its attempt to prove that Harry Thaw was insane at the time he killed Stanford White, now faces the problem of proving that this insanity was of a temporary nature, and that he has recovered from it. Mr. Harbridge, of Thaw's counsel, announced that Dr. Graeme M. Hammond and Dr. Smith E. Jelliffe, both noted alienists, have been called for this purpose. Neither of these experts has been mentioned as having seen Thaw immediately after his imprisonment in the Tombs. Neither Dr. Britton D. Evans nor Dr. Chas. G. Wagner have stated whether or not he believed Thaw to be sane now, although Dr. Evans testified that there was a noticeable improvement in his condition after his first three visits to the Tombs.

Mrs. Thaw to Be Recalled.

If there is time after the alienists have finished, Evelyn Nesbit Thaw will be recalled and will continue her testimony, reciting the stories which her husband told her regarding the other girls, who, he believed, had suffered at the hands of White as she told him she had suffered. These are the girls for whom Thaw provided a fund in the codicil to his will, which was read in evidence yesterday. This fund, contrary to the stories which have heretofore been printed about it, provides money, not for the support of these girls, but to assist them to obtain legal redress from the man Thaw believed had wronged them.

Jerome Knows the Girls' Names.

The names of the girls which are mentioned in the document were not read yesterday and will not be disclosed by Evelyn Thaw when she testifies, but District Attorney Jerome has them and, it is understood, has seen all the girls referred to, and has obtained from them their stories. That he will be able to put any of these stories before the jury there is little probability. But he can perhaps use them in his cross-examination of Evelyn Thaw.

The proceedings late yesterday afternoon gave a hint of what is to come when Mr. Jerome begins his cross-examination of Dr. Evans, and plainly showed that when he goes into the general cross-examination of the experts it will be very searching. There are few, if any, lawyers who have a better knowledge of medicine as applied to neurology and insanity, and that he will take full advantage of his knowledge is certain. Mr. Jerome and Dr. Evans are not on friendly terms and the clash between them will be interesting. On the other hand it was shown that Mr. Delmas will do everything in his power to protect his witnesses from Mr. Jerome's sarcasm, and will not leave them to their own resources as did his predecessor, Mr. Gleason, to Dr. Wiley, of Pittsburgh, the first witness called by the defense.

THAW TRIAL EVIDENCE
SHOULD BE PRINTED.

Says a Kansas Preacher in a Sermon on Morality.

Wichita, Kan., Feb. 19.—In a sermon on morality, entitled, "Woman's Rights," Dr. John Henry Cudlipoe, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church, declared that all the evidence in the Thaw trial should be printed.

"I want to see every line of the Thaw evidence printed," said Dr. Cudlipoe, "and I want to read it. I think the public should read it."

MISTAKE MADE.

Supervisors Have to Go Over About Forty Pages of Books Again.

The city supervisors did not finish counting up the total real estate assessments yesterday, as they discovered they had made a mistake with the counting machine, and have to turn back and again go over about forty pages of the realty books. This will consume another day or two before they arrive at their totals.

SLAUGHTERING PEN VISIT

DR. SIGHTS WILL MAKE TOUR
TO SEE HOW THINGS
NOW ARE.

The Incinerating Plants Have Hardly Had Time to Arrive and Be Installed.

Dr. H. P. Sights, one of the city board of health members, will today make a personal visit to the several slaughter pens maintained inside the city by butchers and see what improvements have been made during the past two weeks as regards elevating the sanitary conditions.

A number of the butchers promised to put their pens in the best shape possible, when the board of health began agitating so strongly the idea of compelling the pens to be moved outside the city limits. A number of them also agreed to put incinerators in so there could be burned the accumulation of parts wasted in slaughtering cattle, and in this manner prevent useless flesh and bone from laying around to rot and thereby cause stench of an unhealthy nature. The incinerators have not yet had time to arrive, but will be installed immediately on getting here.

Dr. Sights and the other board members are keeping after the butchers with a determination that things must be bettered in the mentioned respect so the health conditions will be improved for residents living around the slaughter pens.

CONDITION IS PRECARIOUS

RECOVERY OF MR. E. REHKOPF IS A VERY DOUBTFUL MATTER.

The La Grippe Continues Attacking
Many People Over the City, But Not in Violent Form.

The recovery of Mr. E. Rehkopf at his home on Washington street is a matter of doubt, but Dr. H. P. Sights is doing everything possible for the venerable gentleman, whose condition is very serious as result of the attack of heart trouble. Last night the physician could discern a strong murmur of the heart while other symptoms indicate a stage most precarious, and the doctor cannot yet tell whether he will be able to pull the gentleman through. Mr. Rehkopf has slept none for many nights or days now.

Mr. Henry Katterjohn, and also his child, are confined with attacks of la grippe at their home on Jones street.

Mrs. Dr. Sights is convalescing from a ten days' confinement with la grippe.

Colonel Joseph Potter is able to be out after a several days' sickness with la grippe at his home on North Fourth.

Mrs. James A. Foster is quite ill at her home in the Smith flats on South Fifth between Washington and Clark streets.

HUNDREDS AT THE MUSICAL

THIRD STREET METHODIST CHURCH SCENE OF FINE
EVENT LAST NIGHT.

MISS EWELL TENDERED
HAPPY SURPRISE PARTY

MISS ETHEL BROOKS ENTER-TAINS ENTRE NOUS CLUB
TOMORROW.

Junior League of Trimble Street
Methodist Church Gives Washingtonian Affair.

The entertainment given last evening at the Third street Methodist church was one of the most elaborate and satisfying affairs ever conducted in this city, the programme teeming with excellent numbers, listened to by about 500 people who overtaxed the capacity of the church, standing room being at a premium. The affair commenced at 8 o'clock and did not come to a close until 10:45 o'clock, every participant receiving an encore, their parts were so enjoyable and beautiful. The outline for the evening was one of the most elaborate ever heard, and the ladies in charge, Mrs. Peter Fields and others, are delighted at the unusual success of the affair. They netted something over $100 by the event.

Happy Surprise Party.

Miss Carrie Ewell, one of Paducah's most popular and lovable young ladies, was the recipient of a happy surprise party tendered her last evening at the residence of her sister, Mrs. Ham of North Sixth near Monroe street.

About twenty friends swooped down upon the young lady, who accorded them a most delightful evening at various amusements, interspersed with delicious refreshments.

Miss Ewell leaves next week for Mobile, Ala., to make her future home, and carries with her the well wishes of all.

Entre Nous Club.

Miss Ethel Brooks of North Seventh street entertains the Entre Nous club at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at her home.

Washington Affair.

Miss Emma Morgan, principal of the McKinley school building, and her corps of assistants, have sent out to many the following neat invitations:

"The teachers and pupils of McKinley school cordially invite you to spend an afternoon with them in commemoration of the birthday of Washington, Lowell, Lincoln and Longfellow, at McKinley school, Hays avenue, February 21, 1907."

Trimble Street Church.

The Junior League of the Trimble street Methodist church entertains with a fine concert tomorrow evening at the church, commemorative of Washington's birthday.

"Jap-In-Ease."

The public's mind will be eased with this article, as it informs them what comprises "Jap-In-Ease" that has been appearing in few words through these columns for the past week. All knew it was indicative of something fine, and their expectations are realized, as it is the title of the most recent composition by Paducah's talented artist, Mr. Herbert L. Wallerstein. It is a sweet song, well written and commended by the critics, to many of whom it has been submitted. Along with "Jap-In-Ease" Mr. Wallerstein issues four other pieces marked with recognized talent, they being "When," "Woogie," "Mister Star" and "I Love No One But You."

Mr. Wallerstein's own publishing house is getting out the compositions, which are now on sale for the public. The songs are neatly bound, with attractive colored covers, and evidence the high class of pieces characteristic of this talented young Paducahan, who has made quite a name for himself in the artistic world. On these newest pieces are likenesses of the composer, also well known theatrical stars who are specializing the Paducahan's songs the country over.

ASSIGNED BILL IS SUED UPON

H. J. TEMPLETON SUES TO RE-COVER $199.75 FROM W.
L. ROBERTSON.

TWO SUITS FOR DIVORCES ARE FILED

HUNDREDS SWARM THE
COURTHOUSE CALLING
UPON SUPERVISORS.

Judge Reed Gave Judgments for Barbara and W. N. Levan Against Ida Hessig Estate.

H. J. Templeton yesterday sued W. L. Robertson for $199.75. When the Leigh Fruit and Storage company failed Templeton bought the outstanding accounts due that firm. Robertson owed Leigh $199.75, and now that Robertson bought the account, he brings suit to enforce collection.

Husband Wants Divorce.

Charles Mitchell wants a divorce from his wife, Lillie Mitchell, filing suit to that effect in the circuit court. They were married in Tennessee September 22, 1904, and lived together until February, 1905, when he claims she left him and has been guilty of lewd conduct with different men.

Wife Dissatisfied Here.

Rosena Maple sued for divorce from her husband, Jewel Maple. They were married here September 15, 1898 and lived together until January 1906, when he left her. On the ground of abandonment she asks for the marital tie dissolution.

Judgments Against Estate.

Barbara Levan was given judgment for $182.69, and W. N. Levan judgment for a similar amount, by the court yesterday in the suit of Felix G. Rudolph, administrator of the Ida Hessig estate against H. T. Hessig. The judgments were given against the estate of Ida Hessig who was a daughter of the Levans.

Master Commissioner Cecil Reed was empowered to make deed transferring to Jake Biederman in the suit of Minnie Pieper vs. Adolph Pieper, property on North Eighth between Boyd and Harris.

Detective T. J. Moore was allowed $75.35 for carrying Bert Roberts to the state reformatory school at Lexington, Ky.

Visiting Supervisors.

The county courthouse is a busy scene nowadays, as hundreds are there daily swarming to the supervisors rooms protesting against raises made to the property for tax purposes. This unusual activity around the building will continue for eight days yet.

Qualifications.

B. J. Hovelsamp qualified yesterday in the county court as administrator of the estate of Betsy Ann Mathis. Felix G. Rudolph, public administrator, qualified as administrator of the estate of James Walker, colored.

Property Sold.

Land in the county has been sold by C. W. Gibson to D. R. Ried for $950, and the deed filed for record yesterday with the clerk.

Nellie T. Gardner bought from Brack Owen for $175, property on Madison street.

Licensed to Wed.

The clerk issued a marriage license to Delana Book and Emma Short, white people of the city. A colored pair securing a license was Lon Young, aged 28 and Ollie Bows, aged 22, of the city.

Power of Attorney.

E. B. Guthrie and wife Minnie Guthrie, of Los Angeles, Cal., have conferred power of attorney to Dr. Vernon Blythe to release some liens held upon property formerly owned here by the Guthries.

Attachment Suit.

Bonds and Powell, and R. W. McKinney, the commission merchants, filed a suit yesterday in the quarterly court against J. M. Kluck of Custer, Wis., for $100, and attached Kluck's money in the City National bank.

The Paducah commission men claim they bought a carload of potatoes last spring from Kluck at a certain price, but he failed to deliver them to him. The price of this commodity then went up, and when the Paducahans did buy they had to pay the advanced charge. They now sue Kluck for the difference between the price they bought from him, and the figure they had to pay because of his refusal to deliver and the resultant increase price.

SKULL BELIEVED TO BE THAT OF PEARL BRYAN

Measurements Tally Exactly With Those of the Murdered Woman. Cincinnati, Ohio, Feb. 19.—C. H. Glandorf, a contractor, who lives at Eighth and Central avenue, Cincinnati, discovered on the roadway between Newport and Dayton, Ky., where he employs men to fill in earth washed away by the recent floods, the skull of a young woman.

The measurements of the skull tally with the measurement prescribed by comparative anatomy of the head of Pearl Bryan, of Greenburg, Ind., for whose murder near Fort Thomas, Ky., Jackson and Walling paid the penalty of death in the Newport Jail in 1896. Pearl Bryan was murdered February 1, 1896.

From the point where the trunk of her body was found to the office of the Newport doctor by whom the girl was treated at the instance of her slayers, leads the roadway in which the head was dug up yesterday.

REMAINS OF YOUNG MAN

MR. JOSEPH WALLER BURIED
YESTERDAY AT THOMP-SON CEMETERY.

Died of Heart Trouble Sunday at Texarkana, and Corpses Arrived Yesterday at Florence Station.

Yesterday afternoon several hundred people attended the funeral services over the remains of the late Mr. Joseph Waller at the Thompson cemetery in the Florence Station neighborhood of the county. The funeral was conducted under the auspices of the Woodmen of the World, of which the young man was a valued member.

The deceased was twenty-two years of age and born in the Florence Station section. Two months ago he located in Texarkana, Ark., where he was employed as a boilermaker for the railroad entering that city. Last Sunday morning he died after a short illness with heart trouble, the remains arrived at 2 o'clock yesterday morning at Florence Station and were taken to the home of his mother, Mrs. Waller. In the afternoon the burial occurred at the cemetery mentioned.

The deceased is survived by his mother, one half-brother, Mr. B. B. Jones, one half sister, Mrs. Ollie Vaughan, on brother, Harvin Waller, and five sisters, Misses Annie, Rexie, Bess, Fay and Mary Waller.

He was a most popular and reliable young fellow.

WASHINGTON LIBERTY BELL

PADUCAH VETERANS CANNOT CONTRIBUTE TO IT
JUST YET.

The Local Delegates for Richmond
Reunion Will Not Be Named
Until Next Session.

At the meeting of the James T. Walbert camp of Confederate veterans last evening at the city hall, the old soldiers took no action further than hiling the communication regarding making a contribution to the fund being gotten up over the country for a bell to be bought and erected at Washington, D. C., to be rung loudly all day every Fourth of July. The Paducah veterans have a number of projects on their hands now demanding money, and did not desire to assume more than they could properly care for. Their biggest thing is the movement of getting up funds, in connection with the Daughters of the Confederacy, for erection of a handsome monument in Lang park on Fountain avenue. The monument will be topped by a figure of General Tilgham.

The Paducah veterans do not select their delegates until next month for the reunion to be held at Richmond, Va., this spring.

A number of routine matters were before the veterans last evening.

THE JAPS ARE VERY ANGRY

STRONG DISSATISFACTION IS FELT AND EXPRESSED OVER
"PRISCO" AGREEMENT.

JAPANESE RESIDENTS OF
HAWAII MAKE PROTEST

SAY SERIOUS INJURY WILL BE CAUSED TO THEIR INTEREST.

Nichi Nichi, Japanese Paper, Discusses Subject—Says Price to High to Pay.

Tokio, Feb. 19.—(Afternoon).—The official text of President Roosevelt's amendment of the exclusion bill has been published.

As expected it has created the strongest dissatisfaction among the interested parties although the movements of procedure have not yet assumed definite shape.

The Japanese residents of the Hawaiian islands have telegraphed President Roosevelt and the Hawaiian representatives in the house indicating the seriousness of the injury which will be caused to their rights and interests by this legislation. The leaders of opinion here are aware, however, that under the circumstances the only alternative is to calmly resign themselves to the situation, hoping that the government can arrange with the American authorities to reduce the sacrifice in the interest of Japanese emigrants to a minimum.

They regret the new law, lest the San Francisco people, glorying in their success, should assume an overbearing attitude.

News of this kind would only tend to injure Japanese susceptibilities which President Roosevelt has been specially careful to avoid. Sheepish submission under oppression is something that the Japanese cannot entertain.

No Official Steps Taken.

Tokio, Feb. 19.—No official step has yet been taken looking to a settlement of the California situation in accordance with the agreement reached by President Roosevelt and the San Francisco authorities, but should it be effected on that basis, the government must be prepared for violent attacks. The authorities are assuming a calm and resolute attitude, however, and it is believed that a settlement on this line is not entirely hopeless.

The Nichi Nichi's Opinion.

The Nichi Nichi (newspaper) which is looked upon as an authority in diplomatic affairs, discussing the San Francisco school incident, says that the placing of a restriction by the United States on the admission of Japanese immigrants from Hawaii, which practically seems unavoidable, appears to be too high a price to pay for the solution of the school trouble, which, it says, is only a side issue. The whole question, it says, hinges on the admission of laborers, and it suggests the removal of the disability of the Japanese to become naturalized.

If this is effected, the Nichi Nichi thinks that the last source of difficulty between Japan and the United States will cease to exist.

How the Japs Are Excluded.

The amendment which permits the president to exclude Japanese coolies is as follows:

"That whenever the president shall be satisfied that passports issued by any foreign government to its citizens to go to any country other than the United States, or to any insular possessions of the United States or to the canal zone, are being used for the purpose of enabling the holders to come to the continental territory of the United States, to the detriment of labor conditions therein, the president may refuse to permit such citizens of the country issuing such passports to enter the continental territory of the United States from such other countries, or from such insular possessions, or from the canal zone."

While this is a temporary settlement of the Japanese question, as a matter of course, it is quite sufficient for the present, and it might do for some time to come without further action.

Explains the Amendments.

To understand the exact working of this amendment, it should be understood that at the present time the Japanese government has refused to give its subjects passports to go di-

QUESTION UP OF $100,000 WORTH NEW GRAVEL ROADS

COUNTY ATTORNEY BARKLEY SAYS THIS CAN BE DONE, BUT THE FISCAL COURT WILL HAVE TO GET A TWO-THIRDS VOTE OF THE PEOPLE BEFORE THE MONEY CAN BE RAISED—THE YEARLY ALLOWANCE OF HERETOFORE CAN CONTINUE BEING MADE AND CREATE A SINKING FUND FOR REDEMPTION OF THE BONDS AT MATURITY.

During the fiscal court today County Attorney Alben Barkley will submit his legal opinion as regards the authority of the justices of the peace to borrow $100,000 for purpose of building many miles of new gravel roads in the county.

The taxable property of this county including Paducah, for county tax purposes is valued at about $11,000,000. The officials want to construct many new miles of gravel roads. Already the outstanding bonded indebtedness of the county is about $450,000. The magistrates can borrow only $100,000 more, but have to submit the matter to the people for a two-thirds vote before this loan can be contracted. The people have to vote on the question because the law says the fiscal court cannot create an indebtedness without consent of the people in excess of the total revenue from every source.

The magistrates will take up the question during the special term to be held today and doubtless makes some disposition of it.

The session today was called for the special purpose of taking up this road question, and to also make settlement with Sheriff John W. Ogilvie, who will report the amount of taxes he has collected for the county government for 1906. The sheriff and his deputies have been hard at work the past few weeks making out their settlement, which includes enumeration of those who have failed to pay their taxes. As he is charged up with the regular amount of tax upon piece of property in the city and county, he will be credited with an amount equal to that of those in arrears. After he makes his settlement with the magistrates, he goes to Frankfort and settles with the auditor for the money due the commonwealth. At the capitol he also gets credit for the delinquents.

Mr. Ogilvie announced yesterday that he had everything in shape for the settlements.

Bert Johnson, superintendent of the county roads, is of the opinion that $100,000 can be expended now on good roads, and then created a sinking fund out of the amount heretofore annually appropriated for highways, and then at the end of twenty years this fund be large enough to redeem all the bonds. In this manner the rural districts get $100,000 worth of roads at once without having to wait and have gradually built a few miles each year like prevails when just the certain small sum is annually set aside for that purpose.

THE WONDERFUL PRECOCITY OF FIVE-YEAR-OLD BOY

There have been many child wonders, but none of them are more interesting than little Madison J. Bray Buttram, of 900 State street, says the Evansville Courier.

Although he has never gone to school a day in the five short years of his life, little Madison can already read a newspaper from the first page to the last. Words which the average grown up would stumble over have no terrors for the little fellow and he brushes past them with facility that is truly amazing.

Little Madison was born six years ago next October and was named after Madison J. Bray, the local capitalist. He did not learn to talk any earlier than the ordinary child or show any other signs of rapid development, in fact, until last winter he was just a brown-haired fat faced little fellow who seemed to care for nothing more than a hilarious romp.

When his fifth birthday rolled around last October, his mother decided it was time to teach the boy his A. B. C's. It was only a few weeks until he knew the alphabet by heart. Just as soon as he had memorized the twenty-six letters and learned to recognize them when he saw them, the mother ceased her instructions thinking to start the little fellow into school during the winter.

At this point the spark of genius which the boy undoubtedly possessed burst into flame. He began to read. He first mastered words of only a few letters and then gradually increased his vocabulary until he was able to correctly pronounce the most difficult words.

Discovered By Accident.

The fact that the boy was able to read was discovered by accident and came as a great surprise to the family.

There are five children in the Buttram family, the oldest being Miss Cora, who is sixteen years old. The class which she attends at school has been studying advanced American history and she was in the habit of taking her text book home at night to prepare her lessons for the next day.

One night several months ago the history was missing and after a vain search the young lady finally found it in the possession of her little five-year-old brother, who seemed to be much interested in the pages detailing important events in the history of the country. The sister asked him what he was doing with the book and was much amused when he replied that he was reading it. She playfully asked him to read her a passage from the book and was dumbfounded when in a clear but childish voice he began reading the story of the battles won and lost. Other members of the family were called in and the boy was kept busy reading history. All efforts to ascertain how he learned to read were fruitless, the boy's only reply to the queries being that he had "just learned, that's all."

Reads Paper to Father.

James Buttram, the boy's father, is unable to either read or write. His tiny son has overcome that difficulty, however.

Every day a paper is delivered at the Buttram home and perching himself in a tiny small baby rocking chair, little Madison begins to read the day's news to the entire family.

He starts with the first page and picks out the stories which he thinks will be the most interesting to his father. No matter what the subject under discussion in the article may be or how large the reporter's vocabulary happened to be, Madison reads the article through with the ease and precision of a college graduate. During the past few weeks since it has become his daily custom to read the paper to his father, the little fellow has learned that the deaths and accidents of the day are his parent's favorite news items. Quickly scanning the columns he picks out the story of a death or accident, reads it quickly through and passes on to the next, always accurate and precise in his pronunciation. He observes marks of punctuation with the utmost care and reads with an expression many adults never acquire.

"BLIND TIGER" TOWN NOW MODEL VILLAGE.

Law Enforcement Works Wonders Where Once Rum Demon Ruled.

Booneville, Ind., Feb. 19.—Tennyson, the once famous Indiana "blind tiger" town, is a striking example of what can be accomplished under the Moore amendment to the Nicholson law. For years the citizens of this little town, although it was regularly incorporated and had peace officers, were compelled to battle with a class of men who sought to evade the law on every occasion in the sale of intoxicants.

If there were a soldiers' reunion, a picnic, a Fourth of July demonstration or a gathering of any kind at Tennyson, somewhere close at hand a secret till after the celebrations were over. The men operating these "blind tigers" were dangerous to deal with, and whenever an arrest was attempted there was trouble, frequently resulting seriously. Men's throats have been cut and others were shot by the ruffianly gang.

Tennyson and the entire township of Skelton has been "dry" for a year. After the saloons had been abated, the "blind tigers" were hunted out. One Sunday, nearly a year ago, a raid was made on a log cabin in the edge of town. Bottles were there in abundance, carried in suit cases to elude the vigilance of the officers. Intoxicants had also been carried there in ice cream freezers, packed in ice, and a wagon load of untouched liquor was carried to town, and guarded by the deputy revenue collector.

The situation is now greatly changed at Tennyson. There are no more fights nor brawls, and drunken men are seldom seen. If one is found by the marshal he is at once arrested. With the removal of the sale of intoxicants, Tennyson is no longer known as the "Blind Tiger," but, instead, there is no more orderly community in Southern Indiana. Now the citizens boast that a "blind tiger" can no more stay in Tennyson than a snowball can last in June.

Bakers Beaten for Raising Price.

Madrid, Feb. 19.—Riots have occurred in Madrid owing to the bakers having raised the price of bread. Many bakers were injured, and their shops were plundered.

LEVI CHARGED WITH FREEZING ON TO OUTFIT

R. L. HOWELL CLAIMS CALHOUN STOLE THE FINE HORSE AND BUGGY FROM HIS FARM NEAR MAXON'S MILL.—DR. JOHN HALL WARRANTED ON CHARGE OF SELLING COKE WITHOUT A LICENSE.—MAYBELLE PAYNE RETURNED TO HER HOME ON ISLAND CREEK SHANTYBOAT.—CHIEF JAMES COLLINS PAID FULTON A FLYING VISIT AND TOOK A PEEP AROUND FOR JUDGE BEASLEY.—BUSINESS WITH THE POLICE.

Levi Calhoun, colored, was locked up yesterday morning, while there hangs over his head the charge of stealing a horse and buggy from R. L. Howell of the Maxon's Mill section of the county. The outfit was found hitched to a post down about Third and Jefferson streets.

Monday afternoon Calhoun was espied out in the Maxon's Mill neighborhood, and being a stranger, naturally when Mr. Howell awoke yesterday morning and found his horse and buggy gone from the barn, suspicion was directed to Calhoun and the farmer started to town in search of the man. He met a number of parties who had seen Calhoun driving along with the outfit, and coming on into Paducah Mr. Howell recovered the outfit from the place mentioned, while Officer Albert Senger found Calhoun down at the river front and arrested him.

Crief Out Scouting.

Chief Collins returned yesterday morning from Fulton, but he would not say what he had been doing, except that he did not sleep a wink the night before. He went to that neighboring city upon a secret mission which he refused to disclose, but while there incidentally looked around for Judge Beasley, whose former home was in that city, and who is charged with being a partner of Charles Slaughter in operating the alleged gambling room upon the third floor over Frank Just's barber shop on North Fourth street.

Druggist Warranted.

Dr. John Hall, the Fifth and Norton street druggist, was warranted yesterday on the charge of selling "coke" to the party of Coots Eggleston, John Hamilton and other men and women who had the big fight in the alley between Fifth and Sixth streets just beyond Norton Monday. The scrappers testified that they bought the drug from Dr. Hall at this stand, and also that he has sold them several times while he was out on Jackson street.

Horse on Streets.

Joe Woods, colored, was arrested yesterday by the department on the ground that he allowed his horse to roam at large on the streets and thereby violated the stock law.

Girl Was Found.

Yesterday morning W. N. Payne, who lives on a flatboat in Island creek, sought assistance of the police to find his daughter, Maybelle, who had left home the evening before. Officer Lige Cross located the girl on a shantyboat at foot of Madison street and took her to police headquarters, where she was turned over to her father who escorted her back home. She explained that she was fourteen years of age and her father whipped her Monday, this causing her to run away. Her mother is dead.

Mules and Horse Gone.

Coleman Howell, colored, of the Maxon's Mill section of the county, reported to the department yesterday that his horse and two mules are missing, he not knowing whether they were stolen or strayed away. The patrolmen are keeping a lookout for the animals.

Wants His Red Calf.

William Davidson, of just beyond Mechanicsburg, is minus his red calf, seven months old, and enlisted the aid of the police in looking for the young bovine. He thinks someone stole the calf and had the house of one suspect searched, but failed to find the animal stored away in any of the bedrooms or the closets.

Boy Missing From Home.

Chief Collins got word yesterday that possibly Herman Greenwalt of Danville, Ill., would come this way, and if intercepted a reward would be paid for him. The lad is fourteen years of age and ran away from home three weeks ago.

CLAIM NOTICE.

McCracken circuit court—George Rawleigh, executor of Milton H. Ingram, plaintiff, vs. equity. George O. Ingram and others, defendants.

Ordered that this action be referred to Cecil Reed, master commissioner of the McCracken circuit court, to take proof of assets and liabilities of the estate of Milton H. Ingram, deceased, and all persons having claims against said estate are required to properly certify and file the same, before said commissioner, on or before the 15th day of April, 1907, or they will be forever barred from asserting any claim against the assets in the hands of the executor of said estate unadministered, and all persons are hereby enjoined and restrained from collecting their claims, against said estate, except through this suit. And it is ordered that this order be published in The Paducah Daily Register as required by law.

Given under my hand, as clerk of said court, this 16th day of February 1907.

LIFELONG FRIENDS DIE AT SAME HOUR.

Girl Chums Persuaded Husbands to Get Adjoining Houses.

New York, Feb. 19.—Born in the same town, school-girl friends married within a few weeks of each other and next-door neighbors from that time until their death, Mrs. Charles Hallett and Mrs. R. T. Slade rounded out their lives together even to the same hour, when they died from natural causes in their homes in Riverhead, L. I.

Mrs. Hallett married a nephew of P. T. Barnum, the showman. She and her girlhood friend induced their husbands to build houses side by side in the village that they might not be separated, and for years the two families were as one.

A few days ago Mrs. Hallett became ill, and Mrs. Slade came over to nurse her. Mrs. Slade collapsed and was in a dying condition when her friend died, the same night. Just before she died she whispered to those about her not to tell her friend, lest the shock kill her. She died not knowing that her friend had preceded her one-half hour earlier.

The first copper cent was coined in New Haven in 1687.

Real estate in New York city is valued at $5,800,632,132, according to the figures of the assessor.

Keep It Out of the Papers.

The Louisville Evening Post makes this very sensible comment on those misguided people who believe or pretend to believe it best to keep things out of the papers, when it says:

Representative Wharton of Illinois represents a certain class of public men who believe that a public sense of decency and morality is outraged not by crimes in high places, not by the prevalence of degrading moral standards, not by the general deterioration of American society, but by the publication of the revolting features of these manifestations. He wants to go upon record in the house of congress as being shocked by the trial of Thaw. He is ready to declare that this trial reveals "a depth of moral depravity, degradation and degeneracy on the part of Stanford White unequalled in all the annals of our criminal history," but he wants the president to take steps to see that a knowledge of these conditions which have been brought home to the conscience of the American people.

Congressman Wharton belongs to a class of people who might be called strict moralists, people who believe that if they can "keep things out of the paper" that they do not, therefore, exist. That was the safety of Stanford White. For a quarter of a century he has lived a life the particulars of which are now revealed to the public, undeterred by public opinion, unchecked by the police authorities, uncensored by his associates, himself recognized as a leader in the modern life of New York, honored as an artist, sought as a companion, courted and received everywhere.

Such a career was possible only through the suppression of the truth. District Attorney Jerome makes angry protest in his court against hearing what he calls "gossip of the tinnerloin," but if it is on record anywhere we have failed to find the record to show that the district attorney of New York or any of the numerous officers of the city and state of New York have up to this time made the slightest effort in any direction to check Stanford White in the work in which he so delighted. It cannot be possible that a great architect living the life White led with the establishments that are now known to everybody could have followed such a career so long a time without bringing some of the facts to the attention of the police authorities.

Yet when Thaw killed White the whole country was shocked. The country knew nothing whatever of the character of Stanford White. Nothing reflecting upon him had ever been allowed to creep into the papers of New York or to get into the courts.

Blackmail to Abe Hummel, and no doubt he paid blackmail to the police above such influences were tolerant of his crime because he was something of a genial gentleman and a distinguished artist.

Now when the story is told, when the world is shocked, the district attorney protests against any further revelations and a number of well-meaning but ill-advised people want to prevent the truth even at this late day from adequately portraying the conditions existing among a large element of degenerates in New York, which conditions are poisoning the moral life of America and making other girls the victims of other Stanford Whites.

And speaking of the Japs, their government will not issue passports to emigrants direct to the United States, but issue thousands to Hawaii, which they don't regard as a portion of the U. S. This is true, nevertheless, and the consequence is that after the Japs have landed at Hawaii, all they have to do is to take the next ship to San Francisco, which they have been doing at the rate of 2,000 per month. There is no law to prohibit emigrants from traveling from one part of the country to another.

"The Nichi Nichi," or a Jap paper of similar outlandish and heathenish name, says "the placing of a restriction on admission of Japanese labor is too high a price to pay for the solution of the school question," and calls the latter "only a side issue." It begins to look like the assertion that the wily Jap is only looking for an excuse is true. Well, when people are looking for excuses for anything they have no trouble in finding them.

February 3 Mollie Eaton of Bowling Green met John Sanders. Feb. 5 they were married. Feb. 16 suit for divorce filed by Mrs. Sanders on grounds of abandonment. This is the record of a Kentucky girl who did not have time to "repent at leisure." There are several lessons in the above for girls.

Upper counties in Kentucky are taking great interest in the Thaw trial. The grand jury of Marion county will try to keep the details of the trial out of the papers, while the people of Breathitt are betting one hundred to one that Thaw will not be convicted. The people of the latter county have certain precedents in mind, and think they have safe bets.

Several ministers have declared the full reports of the Thaw trial should be published. Add to this the demand of the reading public in general and the newspapers certainly have good grounds for publishing "the disgusting proceedings." Roosevelt and the postmaster general to the contrary notwithstanding.

The corporations state that certain cities are not yet ready for municipal ownership, which means that they are not quite ready to give up ownership of the cities; but the time is not far distant when the people will insist on a transfer of title.

If reports are true concerning tipping in the committee and cloak rooms of the national capitol, there might be good sport for the hunters of certain striped beasts that can not see very well.

It Is Time to Call a Halt.

(By Rabbi T. Schaniarber.)

When certain men must starve while others live in luxury and extravagance, little mindful of the struggling sons of toil to whom life has become a burden and a curse; when employers treat employees as tools and machines and fail to see in them their brothers; when fraud, corruption, dishonesty, grab and graft and loot take place in the city, the state and the federal legislative halls; when senators are entrapped in land-grabbing schemes and unholly family relationships; when deacons of the church rent out their hotels for low and immoral purposes because this nets them a large income on their investment; when devotees of the church and synagogue rent out their tumble-down, ramshackle, uninhabitable tenement houses to the poor, because they bring them usurious returns; when the youth of this country are stunted and blunted and dwarfed through inhuman child labor; when factories and railroad crossings and the murderous railroads send thousands to an untimely grave, the time has come for every lover of humanity to cry a halt and to use every influence to have such legislation passed as will make these things an impossibility in the coming years.

MASONIC MEETING.

Different Degrees Conferred Upon Many Candidates Last Night.

At the meeting of Plain City lodge of Masons in the Fraternity building last night, the master's degree was conferred upon four candidates, the entered apprentice degree upon three candidates, while five petitions for affiliation were received.

It was a very long meeting the lodge not adjourning until 12:30 o'clock this morning, but the attendance was exceedingly large.

OLLIE JAMES DEFINES WALL STREET.

Washington, Feb. 19.—In a speech in the house the other afternoon Ollie James gave his definition of Wall street. It has been quoted extensively and has made a hit. He said:

"Wall street is a place where a man is a bull one day and a bear the next and a hog every day." When he propounded this definition the members of the house, republicans and democrats alike, joined in loud laughter.

NEWS IN BRIEF.

—Ferryman Wm. Herron of the Clark's river ferry Sunday picked up a mussel shell at the ferry landing, and found inside a pearl valued at $200 by the jeweler.

—The W. C. T. U. meets in regular session tomorrow afternoon in the lecture room of the First Baptist church.

—The McCracken County Medical society met with Dr. Della Caldwell of Broadway last evening, the hostess lecturing on "La grippe" and Dr. R. M. Childress, the specialist, on "Retinitis."

—Monday the wife of Fireman Otto Hamilton hung a suit of clothing on a line in the rear yard of their home on Twelfth and Hampton avenue. Two negroes saw her do it, and one went to her front door, knocked and asked her where so-and-so lived, while the other culprit slipped into the yard and confiscated the clothing while his confederate held the attention of the wife, quizzing her about some fictitious person's house number.

Some children playing in the Sherrill-King mill in Mechanicsburg got to monkeying with one of the fire alarm boxes and unknown to them, they turned in an alarm, which brought the Fourth and Elizabeth streets department on a dead run. On learning what caused the alarm, Chief Woods reprimanded the youngsters and let them go.

—Thirteen volumes of the International School of Technology have been ordered by the library for use by railroad men. The entire 75 volumes will be purchased sometime this year.

—Chief Dispatcher Page and Trainmaster McCabe yesterday moved their office from the old freight depot at Eleventh and Broadway to the dispatchers building moved to Eleventh and Kentucky from out about the "Y" opposite the Union depot.

—Henry J. Brayboy of 1313 Atkins avenue, and Ben Hughes of Evansville, enlisted at the army recruiting bureau here yesterday for service in the Philippines.

DATE CHANGED.

Republicans Have Altered Original Date for State Convention.

The Republican State Central committee last week met at Louisville and decided to hold a state convention there June 26 to select party candidates for state offices from governor down. It develops the plumbers of the United States hold their national meeting at Louisville on that date, and as the hotels of Louisville cannot accommodate the thousands that will attend both gatherings, the republicans have advanced the state convention to June 19.

WASHINGTON.

Soldier and statesman, rarest union; High-poised example of great duties done

Simply as breathing, a world's honors worn
As life's indifferent gifts to all men born;
Dumb for himself, unless it were to God,
But for his barefoot soldiers eloquent,
Tramping the snow to coral where they trod,
Held by his awe in hollow-eyed content;
Modest, yet firm as Nature's self; unblamed
Save by the men his nobler temper shamed;
Not honored then or now because he wooed
The popular voice, but that he still withstood;
Broad-minded, higher-souled, there is but one
Who was all this, and ours, and all men's—Washington.
—James Russell Lowell.

How the Pullman Company Suffers. (Kansas City Journal.)

Probably the greatest sufferer from the discontinuance of free passes is the Pullman company. Very few of the thousands who received free railway transportation enjoyed any favors at the hands of the Pullman. They paid for their berths like other passengers. Riding without cost they generally felt able to indulge in the luxury of a bed. Cutting off the bulk of this travel has cut off many thousands of the Pullman's revenue. In fact, hundreds of sleeping cars are hauled back and forth now that are little more than so many empties. Any commercial traveler will bear witness to this.

Some Costly Animals.

(New York Press.)

A spinster with money to burn recently paid $5,000 for a bulldog. A man in Massachusetts just bought a cow for $8,000. Walter Garvey has a hog for which he refused a cash offer of $4,000. James Keene refused $200,000 for Sysonby, a race horse. There are several roosters of fashionable blood priced as high as $800 each. You can buy a fine lion for $300 and a tiger for $700. By and by we shall have a craze for breeding fishes and a fine male salmon educated to pond life might be worth $1,000. The $8,000 cow has one calf a year old, worth $1,000. The female salmon might become the mother of 300,000 little fellows in the same time, worth in the aggregate possibly as much as the calf.

GOOD WOMAN CALLED HOME

MRS. BETTIE SIMMONS PASSED AWAY AT HER HOME LAST EVENING.

Has Suffered for One Year From Abscess, but Pneumonia Developed Last Week and Caused Death.

Mrs. Bettie Simmons died at 11:20 o'clock last night at their residence, 130 Clements street, in Mechanicsburg, after an illness with complicated ailments. She had been suffering for about one year from abscess, but pneumonia developed last week and this additional sickness produced death.

Mrs. Simmons was a good and noble woman of many warm friends who deeply deplore her dissolution which carries an excellent Christian lady away. She was forty-two years of age and had been a resident of this city for a number of years. She was the wife of Mr. W. M. Simmons, foreman at the Mergenthaler-Horton basket factory in Mechanicsburg. Besides her husband, she leaves one child of tender age.

The funeral services will be held at 21 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at the Mechanicsburg Methodist church, Rev. J. B. Perryman officiating.

The burial follows at Oak Grove cemetery.

ALDRICH SOUNDS DOOM OF LEAF TOBACCO BILL.

Washington, Feb. 19.—Senator Aldrich, the particular representative of the trusts in congress, Tuesday sounded the doom of bill removing the tax of 6 cents from leaf tobacco.

At the close of a red-hot session of the committee having the bill in charge Aldrich said:

"I will say to you gentlemen, frankly, that I do not think there is any possibility of the bill being acted upon favorably at this session." "If the bill is taken up in the senate, will you promise not to delay?" asked Senator Daniel.

"I am not answering any questions of that kind," said the spokesman of the trusts.

Aldrich's manner during the hearing was impudent in the extreme. He asked questions of the spokesman of the independent growers which showed his bias in favor of the trusts and against the people. Charles B. Fort, president of the Dark Tobacco Association of Kentucky, Tennessee and Virginia; James B. Fort, of Tennessee, and Col. John Allen, of Clarksville, Tenn., spoke in favor of the bill. Representative Ollie James and Owsley Stanley were present, but Aldrich refused, with characteristic impudence, to allow them to ask questions.

"If you will permit us to question these gentlemen," said James, referring to a number of alleged independent tobacco manufacturers, who were present, "I think we can establish the fact that the stock income, at least, of these so-called independent concerns, is owned by the Tobacco trust, which is oppressing the people."

The "Independent" Merchants and Senator Aldrich never uttered a "cheep" when James made this scorching accusation.

Aldrich announced that there was a long list of men who want to be heard in opposition to the bill and that the hearings will be continued next week.

Senator Daniel ventured to suggest that this means the death of the bill. "I don't know about that," said the father and friend of trusts.

Representative Stanley charged that some of the men who have applied to be heard are acting in bad faith, simply for the purpose of delay. Aldrich called him to order sharply and directed that the stenographer strike Stanley's remarks out of the record.

Aldrich, in conversation with a senator today, said that he is against anything that John W. Yerkes is for. The senator had suggested that Yerkes prepared the bill to remove the tax from leaf tobacco.

MOTHER'S TERRIBLE TRIPLE CRIME.

Connersville, Ind., Feb. 19.—Mrs. J. S. Mundelle, thirty-five years old, cut the throats of her two children shortly before noon yesterday, then committed suicide. The deed was done with a butcherknife, while she was preparing dinner.

She placed the two little girls, four years and seven years old respectively, side by side on the bed, and pulling down all the blinds and locking the doors, she placed a heavy quilt at one window to shut out all sound in case the children should make an outcry. After slashing their throats she lay down beside them and drew the knife across her own throat.

The father, who is a graduate of Oxford college, and who was at one time mayor of Oxford, returned home and found the lifeless bodies of his children on the bed and his wife dying beside them.

No cause assigned.

"JESS KEPT MUM."

Negro Private Did Not Tell Officers Anything He Knew.

Washington, Feb. 19.—Wm. Mapp, the former private of Company C, Twenty-fifth Infantry, who testified to hearing shots fired outside the garison wall at Brownsville, Tex., and a deep-voiced man, challenging the black soldiers under an opprobrious title, to come out of the barracks on the night of August 12, was cross-examined Tuesday by Senator Warner before the committee on military affairs. Mapp is the man who testified also that he heard Corral Boss Vochelle declare that he had learned of a plot to "massacre" the soldiers in the saloon run by a negro ex-soldier. Mapp told Senator Warner that he had never mentioned any of these incidents to any of his comrades or the non-commissioned officers of his company, but he had made an affidavit setting forth these facts, while at El Reno, Okla. Although questioned sharply he would give no reason for not discussing "these important occurrences," except that he had not thought it necessary to do so.

Assignee's Sale.

In pursuance of an order of the McCracken county court made on February 11, 1907, I will on Friday, February 22, 1907, at the corner of Eleventh and Jackson streets, in the city of Paducah, Kentucky, sell to the highest and best bidder on a credit of three months, all of the stock of drugs and fixtures of Dr. R. O. Broadway. The purchaser may pay cash for said property, if they desire.

CECIL REED.

Assignee Dr. R. O. Broadway.

FINDS ITSELF IN A DILEMMA

As Result of Quashing Indictment Against Congressman-Elect.

New Orleans, Feb. 19.—According to a special from Baton Rouge, the district court in that parish finds itself in a dilemma as the result of Judge Brunot's decision in quashing the indictment against Congressman-elect George K. Favrot for the killing of Dr. Harry Aldrich.

When Mr. Favrot resigned from the bench on Nov. 8 the court had a grand jury without a judge, and now, with the decision of Judge Brunot, the court has a judge with no grand jury, and a new one cannot be drawn until the supreme court has acted upon the state's appeal. A decision by the supreme court is not expected for at least thirty days.

CIRCUS MAN'S WINDOW RECEIVES $5,000,000

White Plains, N. Y., Feb. 19.—Surrogate F. V. Millard, of Westchester county, has handed down a decision admitting the will of James A. Bailey, circus owner, of probate. His action ends the contest brought by relatives of Mr. Bailey living in Michigan, and is a victory for the circus founder's widow, Mrs. Ruth L. Bailey, of Mount Vernon, who now inherits her husband's entire estate, estimated at $5,000,000.

It was contended by the contestants that Mr. Bailey was insane and incompetent to make a will, and that the document was the result of undue influence on the part of the wife.

This Morning a Sale Starts for Paducahans

One that will be fresh in the memory of those who participate in it for years to come. It will be flavored with goods of style and will smack of that good that always attends our onslaughts of merchandise. This is our last closing out sale for the season, and all of you are invited to be present.

50c

Probably 60 waists of all colors, of plaids, sold for a great deal more money, and are waists that will be very good to wear for two months and a half yet, will be sold at our winter goods for 50c

1.95

Here's where we fairly give 'em to you. We have left, probably altogether, 55 coats that would fit children who are six, eight, ten and twelve and fourteen years old. These coats sold throughout this season for $5.00, $6.00, $7.00 and $8.00. Now you can buy them for choice of any of them for $1.95 each

We have in our stock a great many odds and ends in skirts. Some of them are small sizes, some medium, and others are large sizes. They are gray, mixtures, navy blue and blacks. The lowest price on any of these skirts was $5.00. Some sold for $8.00 and $8.50. We are going to let you pick what you want out of this lot during last sale for $2.75 each

An electric seal jacket with two years guaranteed lining, one of our best $35.00 numbers—you may have it for $16.50

Will get you a brown, coney near seal coat that we sold all throughout the season for $35.00, with either blouse or jacket effect. This popular fur coat has been one of the best sellers all through the season. Now you have your opportunity to get it for $16.50

We are going to offer you as an inducement, one of our best quality Astrikan, Skinner lined 24 or 27 inch coats, that sold for $45.00 and $47.50. This coat is one that contains more service than any other kind of fur coat in our establishment. During the wind up of all our winter clothes, we have concluded to pass it in with this other lot of coats and sell it to you for $25.00

31.00

Gets for you an extra good quality near seal, lined with guaranteed lining, a coat that is cheap for $50.00. The fur in this coat is of the best XXX quality near seal, and in order to keep from carrying any of these over, we are going to give you an opportunity to buy one of these for $31.00

60c

This price means that you may secure a child's set of furs. This includes both neck scarf and muff, of white coney fur with trimmings, of plain. The former and regular price on this set was $1.50, and during the onslaught of prices, we are going to give you a set of these childrens furs at 60c

Napoleon said, "I came, I saw, I conquered." This is more than Levy's can say at this particular season of the year. We came, we saw, but we fail to conquer, due to the fact that our stock of winter merchandise was too great for the demands of the people of this vicinity, but still live in hopes, and we feel sure before the close of this sale, there will not be enough winter merchandise beneath the roof of our establishment to clothe even a child. In the endeavor to make away with our winter material, we have placed such prices on them as would lead any lady to believe that it would be much better to invest in our coat, suit, fur or other covering, than to hoard up this mite or sum, and keep it until next season, by which she could only buy a portion of which she can buy the whole for now. You have no idea how extremely low the prices have been put on every thing we have to sell. We have no room to carry them over, nor have we any desire to do so. For this reason we are getting ready to place in our shelves, clothes of a lighter variety than now adorn our hangers. This sale starts this, Wednesday morning, at 8:30 o'clock sharp, and continues throughout the entire week.

Not many more days before we will be ready to show all of you a line of spring clothes, that each and every one of you will say are the prettiest you have ever seen, but before we step into the beautiful days of spring, we are going to traverse more thoroughly the raiment of winter wear. We have probably $6,000 or $7,000 worth of winter goods yet in our store. These goods consist of the very best values, and one would do well to buy them and keep them for next season, even though they have no use for them now. There might be a slight change in style, but not enough to overcome the amount of difference it would cost you next season or now. We know it is to your advantage to come to our sale on this, Wednesday morning. We feel that we are doing you equally as much good as we are doing ourselves. We admit that we are selling these goods at a sacrifice, and a great loss, but when we realize that we can open our store next season with nothing but new goods, we feel that we have been duly paid for the loss we have previously taken.

This sale at our store starts this, Wednesday morning, at 8:30 o'clock and continues throughout the entire week.

We Are Going to Sell You a Good Coat for a Child for $1.95

IN THIS ADVERTISEMENT YOU WILL NOTE SOME SPECIAL GOOD VALUES. AMONG THEM ARE FUR COATS.

It is hardly reasonable to believe that we could describe to you all the values of this one particular line through the medium of this newspaper, but we have them. We have the greatest values in cloaks both in fur and cloth, that any house has offered at any time or any place. Every fur coat in our store is being sold for practically one-half its value. We do not mean to say that we are selling them for one-half their original cost, because that would not be telling the truth. We are going on further, and tell you that we are selling them for a great deal less than that, and when we say one-half their value, we say it in the most sincere and meaning spirit.

The mixed coats mentioned in this sale for $3.50 and $5.00, are values of some importance. The black coats and the tan coats that sold throughout the season for $10.00 are worth from $20.00 to $35.00 each, and the children's coats we mention at $1.95, are rare bargains. This sale will start this, Wednesday morning, and continue throughout the entire week, and indeed means much to all Paducah and its surrounding people.

A Cloak That Sold For Ten Dollars Will Be Sold in This Sale For $3.50

Water Mixx, Mole, Astrikan, Krimer, Coney, Angora fur sets for Misses and children. Some of these sets were $4.50, others were $5.50; some were $7.00, some were $8.00 and others $10.00. All these have been merged together and will be sold during this final sale, your choice of any child's set in the store $1.95

3.50

We have selected from our stock about 35 garments. These are cloaks of mixtures and plaids, that will fit any lady from a "32 to 44." The former price on these garments were from $8.00 to $15.00. We are determined to sell every one of the cloaks and have therefore spoken to you through this advertisement in a manner that must meet our desire. Now, this morning our doors are thrown open to you for a selection of these rare bargains. We are going to have this lot of cloaks placarded, and the inscription thereon shall read—"ANY CLOAK ON THIS RACK FOR $3.50"

5.00

Another lot of the better grades of mixed coats. Some of them are imported numbers and are very, very pretty. Others are the work of the best eastern factories, and the values too great to speak of. These coats sold in price from $15.00 to $30.00, and the cloth in them is of the very best. English mixtures. Some of them are striped, and a good lot are in plaids. This morning all of them will be put in one lot and sold to those who so desire it, any of them for the extremely low price $5.00

16.95

About 45 suits still remain in our store. They are black, brown, navy blue, castors and some of them are plaid, and all of them are of the best quality of cloth. The former price on these suits were $30.00, $35.00, $40.00, $45.00 and $50.00. Now this lot consists of our entire stock of fine suits, and in order to make a disposition of the entire lot, so as to enable us to open our store on Monday week with all spring goods, we are going to show you the plan we pursued, to clean out entirely, every suit beneath our roof. Now you may come this morning and pick your choice of any suit in our store for only $16.95

7.95

This lot of suits has been culled from some of our finer ones. They consist of a great many colors, and a few blacks. These sold for $18.50, $19.50 and $20.00, but now we have concluded to sell them for $7.95

10.00

A number of embroidered coats in black, and quite a few in tan. A fairly good assortment, tight fitting coats, lined throughout with Skinner satin. They also come in tan, are going to be sold very cheap. These coats are practical and good almost the year round, with the exception of possibly two or three months, but we want to sell them and convert all these goods into cash, so we have determined to sell them and give you choice during our sale, of any of these coats for $10.00

THIS MORNING

We begin to close our season's business with one of the most expensive sales to us we have ever had to undergo. This sale includes all our winter dresses, winter shirt waists, skirts, tops and cloaks. It would be well to weigh well in your mind the importance of this sale. Buy it now. If you cannot possibly wear it, save the garment until next season, when you'll be wearing better clothes than your friend or neighbor. You will have paid but a trifle for them now, and get the best. She will pay as much next season and get rubbish. Sale starts this morning, February 20th.

5.00

We have 15 or 16 pretty voile skirts in the house we sold for $10.00, $12.00 and $15.00. These are prettily plaited some of them taffeta trimmed, and are all the new spring designs. On account of them being of a kind of a lot left, and not having all sizes, we have concluded to sell them out, and the price on them during our sale beginning this morning will be "Take any one you like" for $5.00

WE USE The KING OF ALL BOSOM IRONERS WHY?

- First. Because it irons smoothly, not rough.
- Second. The button holes, or stud holes match.
- Third. Negligee shirts with buttons are ironed perfectly and without injury.
- Fourth. It irons either stiff or pleated bosoms like new, and the "hump" so often seen is missing.

ENLARGMENT OF BUILDING

HOME OF THE FRIENDLESS IS RAPIDLY GROWING HERE
NOW.

Ladies Will Make Addition to the Structure, While City Will Try to Allow More Money.

The ladies managers for the Home of the Friendless are contemplating enlarging their building, on Bernheim avenue some time this summer, in order to afford ample accommodations for the increasing number of charges cared for at the institution.
The present structure was erected about thirteen or fourteen years ago when the home was fairly well started, but the growing number of people cared for at the institution has become so large that the ladies find it necessary to put additions to the building, and are now outlining their plans looking towards accomplishing something in this regard during the present summer. Several thousand dollars could easily be expended and not make additions in excess of the necessity.

The city government has been allowing the home $70 per month for many years back, but the ladies asked that this be raised to $150 per month the first of this year. This is a little steep, so the general council made a $100 allowance for last December and then dropped back to $70 last month.
Now the finance committee finds time to take up the proposition of an increased contribution, and if it can be found money sufficient will be in the public treasury, this will be done.

GIRL TO RAFFLE HERSELF

Novel Plan of Young New York Woman to Complete Musical Education.

New York, Feb. 19.—"Agreement for the purpose of assisting in the completion of the musical education of Miss Miriam Edwina: I agree to pay the sum in dollars of this ticket.
Name..... Address..... If this number should be the lucky one and all interests being mutual, matrimony will be considered."

An attractive young woman, valise
in hand, descended upon Wall street, and the lambs and bears and other live stock stopped work.

The young woman, in addition to the valise, possessed blonde hair, blue eyes, a cupid's bow mouth and other marks which merited attention.
Furthermore, she carried into Wall street a scheme which made even the enterprising ones of the stock exchange sit up and take notice.

The young woman is Miss Miriam Edwina, and she is raffling herself off for money to obtain a musical education. She has 350 chances, and they range in price from one dollar to $350.

Miss Edwina has a high soprano voice and grand opera is her aim.
She says she has heard of all kinds of raffling schemes for making money and she certainly wants to accumulate enough to take her to Italy.

"I have been trying to earn enough money to complete my musical education, but it seems that it is impossible. My father, who was once a United States consul in Cuba, died three years ago, and I have had to support myself. I tried stenography, and that is how I earned money to study music for a while. Then I went on the stage. I have had voice lessons here in New York four years, but I want two years abroad. Of course, that is necessary for anyone who has grand opera aspirations."

Each ticket is numbered and put in a sealed envelope. When the man draws the envelope he, of course, has no idea of the price he must pay for
it. The number on the ticket represents the price he must pay.

Already Miss Edwina has sold ten shares or chances, the largest number drawn so far being 210, for which a well-known and wealthy New Yorker paid $210.

If Miss Edwina sells all her chances she will have the tidy little sum of $61,425, which ought to help some toward a musical education.

"As you see in the agreement, matrimony is the reward for the lucky ticket—only if all interests are mutual," said Miss Edwina. The raffle will take place in some hall, and I intend giving a concert first and letting people hear me sing."

PARTNER OF M'CLAIN GIRL

PHILLIP ROMMEL WRITES TO CHIEF COLLINS FROM ST.
LOUIS.

He Was Leader of Trio Caught Here
Aboard the Train, the Girl
Wearing Male Attire.

A letter received by Chief of Police Collins from Phillip Rommel revives recollections of the several interesting days
the officers had with Miss Francis McClain, the Louisville girl caught riding upon an Illinois Central passenger train coming into the city, while she was garbed in male attire.

It will be remembered that Phillip Rommel and Paul Gambino were arrested for stealing a ride into Paducah on the train, they riding the "blind baggage" while the girl was inside, she having started out to accompany them over the country. She was held by the police for about one week. In the meantime her trunk and feminine attire that she expressed from Louisville to Paducah arrived.

Rommel and Gambino served about ten days or two weeks in jail for stealing the ride, and when released had a money order sent them but made payable at Cincinnati, from where it was forwarded. Needing money right away they got Chief Collins to cash the order. A little money is yet due Rommel and he wrote the chief yesterday from St.
Louis, saying he was in trouble again and would like for the Paducah chieftain to send him the spare change due him. This will be done.

Rommel did not say what had become of the girl or Gambino.

LEHR'S RAIMENT HORRIFIES ROYALTY.

Check Tweed Suit and Colored Shirt Provoke Mingled Anger and Amusement.

Berlin, Germany, Feb. 19.—Berliners are half amused and half angry with Harry S. Lehr, who has just been visiting the emperor and the crown prince and has accepted a number of invitations to various court functions. He has given great offense mainly in the matter of clothes and his methods of ignoring the stiff etquette of the German court.

Lehr, it appears, went to see these great personages attired in a check tweed suit, yellow boots and a colored shirt and carrying a derby hat in his hand. When he entered the room where royalty sat at a "drawing-room" he insisted that his wife—so the papers say—should have precedence of the wives of ambassadors, and when this important privilege was about to be denied to Mrs. Lehr he pointed out that his jewelry and that of his wife were worth more than all the plunder worn by all the other grandees in the room.

As for Lehr's own "rig out," it was surprisingly beautiful. He wore black knee breeches, while silk stockings and patent leather dancing pumps, in which were fastened diamond buckles of great brilliance. At first the company were inclined to dispute his claim to extra notice, but when they saw that he was an American of eccentricity and of erroneous views as to his own importance they gave way before his onset.

But the German newspapers are not so charitable. They are asking:
"Is the possession of an American moneybag with millions in it all that is necessary for admittance to the arcana of the Prussian court?"

"Is this republicanism? What have republicans to do with such things?"
"He is a comic figure for the amusement of princesses. His millions, earned as a champagne merchant, have bought him the position of court fool. A republican is another type of man who does not bother himself about court functions and balls, and if he must go to such things he can surely be distinguished from the crowd of courtiers without making himself ridiculous. Lehr is the son of a former German consul at Baltimore."

RUSSIAN GRAFTERS FOES OF LOYAL MEN.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 19.—The local daily Strana says Capt. Stavroff and Naval Physician Dr. Barbiolov will be court-martialed as revolutionists, but the paper states the charge is made by officers whom these men refused to join in a tremendous naval grafting scheme. Full details of the scheme are promised the public in a short time. It is said they involve highest naval officials.

Stavroff and Barbiolov, by reason of their positions, were asked to share the spoils, but they refused, saying the navy is poor enough without swindling schemes. When the scheming officers heard of the refusal, they charged the two were revolutionists.
A secret trial was asked. Stavroff and Barbiolov, however, have compiled the facts in the case for publication.

FURIOUS ITCHING HUMOR ON CHILD

Bleeding Sores Covered Her Whole Body After an Attack of Measles—Nursed Every Night for Three Weeks—Nothing Helped Her.

THEN CUTICURA MAKES COMPLETE CURE IN 5 DAYS

"It is in my opinion my duty to join those who praise the Cuticura Remedies. After my granddaughter of about seven years had been cured of the measles, she was attacked about a fortnight later by a furious itching and painful eruption all over her body, especially the upper part of it, forming watery and bleeding sores, especially under the arms, of considerable size. She suffered a great deal and for three weeks we nursed her every night, using all the remedies we could think of. Nothing would help. We then remembered having heard so much about Cuticura Remedies. We sent for them and after twenty-four hours we noted considerable improvement, and, after using only one complete set of the Cuticura Remedies, in five consecutive days the little one, much to our joy, had been entirely cured, and has been well for a long time. Mrs. W. Ruesenach, R. F. D. 3, Bakersfield, Cal., June 25 and July 20, 1906."

HUMOR ON FACE

Cured by Cuticura Remedies No Return in 20 Years.

"My son, when a lad of sixteen, was troubled with humor on his face and after using Cuticura Remedies he was freed from every humor and has continued so to the present time after twenty years have passed. Your Cuticura Soap has been used in my family for several years and I have faith in the Cuticura Remedies. A. H. Smith, Marion, Mo., Dec. 1, 1905."

LOOKING INTO MINE SCHEME

EDITOR WILLIAMS IS SUMMONED TO CARSON CITY, NEVADA.

The Authorities Are Looking Into the Use of the Mails By the Mine Promoters.

It develops that the C. R. Williams wanted from this section at Carson City, Nevada, is the newspaper man of Fulton, who will testify before the United States court grand jury at that place. It is learned that the jury is investigating the mode of doing business adopted by a mining company that sold stock and transacted other business on a large scale out that way. The company inserted an advertisement in Mr. Williams' paper at Fulton telling the world that they owned so much producing gold mine lands, and offering to sell the stock to customers at certain figures and under the specified terms. It is now learned that the authorities charge the promoters of the alleged mining company with swindling the people through use of the mails which come under the watchful eye of Uncle Sam. Mr. Williams is summoned before the jury to testify to the advertisements he ran for the company in his paper, and thereby establish to certain extent the condition of accused parties to the alleged swindling scheme. The company advertised widely, running page ads. in hundreds of newspapers over the country every day for weeks at a time.

BLIND TIGERS QUIT BUSINESS.

New Law Affects Sale of Liquor in South Bend, Ind.

South Bend, Ind., Feb. 19.—Thirty-nine bottling houses and "blind tigers" have been obliged to cease business because of the "blind tiger" law that went into effect yesterday. The Elks and Indiana clubs, which have maintained bars, are also affected.

REPAIR BAD PORTIONS OF THE BRICK STREETS

CONTRACTOR TERRELL MUST FIX THE STREETS HE IMPROVED WITH PAVING BRICK—BOARD OF WORKS WILL LET CONTRACT FOR SOMEONE TO FURNISH ALL 1907 GRAVEL NEEDED FOR REPAIRS—DRINKING FOUNTAIN PROPOSITION TAKEN UP AND THE COST WILL BE ASCERTAINED—NEW PUMPS AND A GASOLINE ENGINE AT SEWERAGE PUMPING STATION.

In order to get into good condition the brick streets on Fifth, Fourth, and Third between Kentucky avenue and Jefferson, and on Second between Broadway and Jefferson, the board of public works during its session yesterday afternoon at the city hall issued instructions for Contractor Edward Terrell to immediately put in good shape that part of the brick street that are sunken along these mentioned thoroughfares. Mr. Terrell laid the brick on these streets, finishing the undertaking several years ago. On completion he executed a bond guaranteeing to keep the streets in good repair for five years, which time limit has not yet expired. There are many places in an unusually deplorable condition along the streets and the work will have to be done at once, as the depressions are dangerous points.

The river is washing away much of the levee at the foot of Jackson street, while rain water rushing down the decline carries much of the earth away also, and to prevent further destruction in this regard the city engineer and street inspector were directed to have needed repairs made.

The water gutters at Third and Tennessee, and several other intersections in the city, are in bad condition, and their repair was authorized.

The attaches of the street department have been taking cinders from the city electric light plant, and using them on the public thoroughfares, and the board ordered that hereafter there be charged up to the street account the value of the cinders, inasmuch as that department gets the benefit of them, and not the light department.

In order to make arrangements for material with which the public streets are to be repaired this year, the board directed that advertisements be inserted in the papers, calling for bids from parties handling gravel, and in which the dealers will quote at what figure they will furnish gravel for the street repair work. The bids will be opened March 1 and contract awarded.

Along North Twelfth street from Trimble to the city limits, are many bad places that need repairing, and Street Inspector Elliott was directed to procure the gravel necessary for the work.

City Engineer Washington informed the board that the Daughters of the Confederacy wanted the municipal government to assist in placing public drinking water fountains; one at Second and Broadway, one at Seventh and Broadway, and the other at the county courthouse. The board directed the engineer to see what the cost of the fountains will be. The general council finance committee is also ascertaining what the probable cost will amount to.

There were filed the three maintenance bonds offered by the Memphis Asphalt and Paving company, wherein it agrees to keep in good condition for five years the brick streets just finished on Second from Kentucky to Washington, on Washington from Second to Third, and the third bond for the concrete walks laid along these thoroughfares. The board sanctioned construction by the street inspector of the 350 feet of plankwalk leading along South Twelfth from Jackson street over to Plunkett's hill. The walk goes along the earthen fill and leaves a dry place for the railroaders who go that way by the thousands daily to and from the shops.

The board also sanctioned the inspector placing the 2430 foot plankwalk on Nineteenth from the Old Clinton road over towards Broadway. The street car company dug up Nineteenth for the rails and ties of the new division the traction people are running out that way. Rain came, stopped the work, and made the muddy street impassable to extent that this plankwalk was needed and was built.

The car company resumed work of putting down the new division yesterday along that thoroughfare.

Superintendent Keebler of the light plant reported he laid off the "trouble man" February 15, pursuant to orders given by President Wilhelm in cutting down operating expenses at the plant. The "trouble man" was the one kept at the powerhouse until 10 o'clock each night to go out and put in good condition any street light that went wrong after dusk. The lights are in such excellent condition and running so well his services are no longer needed. His attention was needed most when there was being gotten into good running order the new electrical machinery and different make of lamp installed. The other members ratified the president's action, laying off the man.

The light department, and street department, were ordered to charge to the markethouse and wharf the cost of all work done for the two latter department by the others.

Undertaker Guy Nance of South Third street was directed to raise his electric sign in front of his place up to the required number of feet above the public sidewalk, as the city electrician reports it is too low. If not raised to the proper height, it has to come down.

The superintendent of the electric plant reported it would save the city money to buy a gasoline engine to run the machinery in the sanitary sewerage system's pumping station at Third and Clay streets, instead of having the $24 per day charge made by the private electric company to furnish current for operation of the pumping machines at the plant. The board passed up to the general council for consideration, the proposition to buy the engine, and also the need of larger pumps at the station after the sewerage district No. 2, now being laid, is finished and connected up with district No. 1, which empties into the river through the pump house.

The gas company was empowered to lay a brick driveway leading from street, across the pavement and into the gas house yard on North Third street.

President Wilhelm reported he had renewed the $10,000 insurance on the powerhouse boilers, at $60 premium, with the Bebout & Smith insurance agency. There was filed correspondence with different agents on the matter.

The Memphis Asphalt company reported that yesterday they had Paducah contractors to begin removing from Broadway between Fourth and Fifth streets, the fragments of asphalt filler that got upon top of the bricks while being poured between.

The board ratified President Wilhelm's action in granting permits for Roy C. Culver, R. L. Peacher and George Edwards to place electric signs in front of their places of business. The signs conform to the regulations.

City Engineer Washington handed in a bill the city has against the Nashville Roofing and Paving company of $261.15, for some brick work along Broadway between the car rails between Fifth and Ninth. It was ordered collected.

Joe Rork, trainmaster for the N. C. & St. L. railroad, offered to give the board a carload of gravel if the city would use half of it in repairing West Jefferson street in front of his property. His proposition was accepted. It permits the board to do what it desires with the other half of the carload.

All members were present during yesterday's session, President Wilhelm, Secretary Taylor, and Member Langstaff.

PRESERVATIVE IN MILK KILLS THOUSANDS.

Illinois Dairy Expert Declares Children are Being Sent to Premature Graves all Over State.

Chicago, Feb. 18.—That thousands of infants in Illinois as well as many larger children, are being sent to premature graves through taking into their stomachs in milk the same poisonous preparations that are used to embalm the dead is indicated by a special report ready for submission to Governor Deneen by State Pure Food Commissioner A. Hanby Jones. The report was made to Mr. Jones by his assistants, Herman E. Schuknecht, the dairy expert of the department.

Assistant Commissioner Schuknecht points out that of thirty-five cities visited, not one escaped having sold within its limits milk from unclean and insanitary cans and vessels or milk not properly strained, showing a deposit of filth in the bottom of the bottles or other vessels, and in thirty-two of the cities skimmed milk was sold as standard and was adulterated with formaldehyde, which authorities pronounce a poison "much used as an embalming fluid."

The department was amazed to find that only from 30 to 35 per cent of the milk on sale in the various Illinois cities visited was in the condition it should have been in—and easily could have been if only ordinary sanitary regulation had been observed in the care and handling of it.

DYNAMITE EXPLOSION KILLS FOUR IN TUNNEL

Livingston, Ky., Feb. 19.—Four men were instantly killed by an explosion of twenty-five pounds of dynamite at No. 6 tunnel on the L. & N. railroad, six miles south of this place, where contractors are constructing a double tunnel.

It is claimed that the men were thawing out dynamite before a fire, and that one of the sticks had a percussion cap in it, which exploded when exposed to the heat and caused the disaster. Those killed and injured were horribly mangled.

THE TRAGEDY OF INJUSTICE.

(By Newell Dwight Hills, D. D.)

Among the dark problems of life we must make a large place for the injustice that noble men sometimes suffer. Long ago Jerusalem crucified its Savior, Athens poisoned its master, Florence burned its hero, but today every town and village holds at least one martyr to cruel and unjust judgments.

Ours is a world in which the clerk suffers in the financial failure of his employer; while the officeholder is ruined by the political mistakes of the party leader; where the child is destroyed by the sins of the father. Employers sometimes suffer grievously by reason of economic events over which they have no control; sometimes the citizen suffers through the sensational press; sometimes the author or editor suffers through cruel criticism over events for whose evil consequences he is in no wise responsible. This problem of unjust judgment and this bearing of injustice in silence is one of the hardest problems that man experiences.

Injustice public men have to endure in silence. Within a year the papers were full of harsh criticisms upon an eminent and most honored citizen of the republic. The bolts fell out of a clear sky. After fifty years of noble and just living, and the highest form of service, it was said that this man had reversed the whole tenor of his life. Then, when the harm had all been done, and the poisoned arrows planted, the truth came out. The whole fabric was a series of malicious lies.

The need of the hour is for justice and truth in judgment. The full facts are perhaps never before any of us. But in general men are far better than they are believed to be. The good in the world outweighs the ill. The prophet saw man as part gold and part clay, but the proportion of gold is more and more and the clay is less and less. The world has had too many teachers poisoned unjustly. Too many reformers martyred without cause. Too many heroes who are victims of malice, isolation and hate. God holds even scales. Lying weights, the tampering of the measuring through prejudice, have no place in His judgment. There is too much good in the worst men and too much bad in the best men to leave any place for injustice harshness or cruelty. To speak only good of the dead and the living alike is a rule that ought to stand first.

GIRLS' EXPELLED FOR POEM.

Likened School to Jail and Judge Refuses Reinstatement.

Chippewa Falls, Wis., Feb. 19.—Judge Vinje, of this judicial district, has refused to reinstate Hazel Dresser and Mabel Dresser as students in the St. Croix Falls high school, application having been made by their father, L. B. Dresser, a member of the state board of control and prominently identified with the Northern Wisconsin State Fair association of this city.

His daughters and Rachel Jellison, Leonora, Dorothy and Phil Clayton were expelled some time ago by the principal for taking part in the publication of a poem written by Della Jastrom, who was also dismissed from the school. Mr. Dresser has appealed the case to the supreme court.

The poem in question likened the St. Croix Falls high school to a prison, in so far as the discipline insisted upon is concerned. As a result the suspension of six pupils followed and a fine of 40 cents was imposed upon each. Mr. Dresser objected to the treatment and appealed to the court to order their reinstatement without punishment of any kind.

"In order to be reinstated the principal insists that the girls apologize, admit wrongdoing, pay 40 cents and promise to be obedient scholars in the future," said Mr. Dresser in explaining the incident. "I offered for my girls that they would comply with these conditions, except that they would not pay 40 cents nor admit that they had done wrong. They do not believe this, for they looked upon the poem as a joke. The girls said that they would tell the teachers that they were sorry if they thought it was wrong. The instructors of the school decline to accept this compromise. The girls explained to the principal that they told the editor of the paper who published the poem not to print it if there was anything more than a joke in it."

The poem which has caused the trouble reads as follows:

THE SCHOOLHOUSE JAIL.
Sit gazing strictly to the front
Until the teacher says "Stand."
And then with dignity arise
And march to the brass band.

Look straight ahead, keep single file,
Come right back to your seat,
Imagine that you are in jail,
Sing Sing our school can beat.

You must shut your mouth at noon-time,
You must shut it at recess,
You must keep it shut at morning
And at other times, I guess.

Just calmly wait till 4 o'clock,
You know that comes round soon,
And then you're free from prison
Until the next forenoon.

ectly from Japan to the United States. This has been done on the general principle that there was not sufficient opening for the Japanese in this country, and their home government, therefore, as a police regulation, would not grant passports to its subjects directly destined for the United States.

Japan did grant passports to Hawaii, Mexico, Canada and many other countries. Once an emigrant from Japan left that country he was outside the jurisdiction of his home government. There was nothing to prevent his laying over one steamer and continuing on to the United States. This was the course taken by the Japanese who have been pouring into California at the rate of 1,000 per month. They all have left Japan with passports for Hawaii, have stopped in the islands a few days or weeks, and then have continued their migration to California and other Pacific states.

SIX NAMES CONSIDERED FOR SUPERINTENDENCY

TRUSTEES MET IN SECRET SESSION LAST EVENING AND SIFTED THE VOLUME OF APPLICATIONS DOWN TO THIS NUMBER AND DIRECTED THE APPLICANTS TO BE WRITTEN TO TO COME HERE PERSONALLY FOR A CONFERENCE—SELECTION WILL HARDLY BE MADE BEFORE APRIL—ABOUT THIRTY PEOPLE WANT TO SUCCEED PROFESSOR PAYNE, WHO RESIGNED TO GO TO GERMANY TO STUDY.

After spending about three hours going over the twenty-five applications for superintendent of the city schools the trustees last evening sifted the number down to six, from which will be named the man who will be superintendent after expiration of the present scholastic term. Of these six three of the applications are those put in by Paducah people, while the remaining half come from a distance. The trustees then directed that the three outsiders be written to and informed that they are among the list of eligibles from which the selection will be made, and request them to come to Paducah upon any date within the next month that suits their convenience for a personal conference with the trustees in order that the latter can be brought face to face with the applicants and scrutinize their man. A conference with the three local applicants is not necessary as the board of education knows each well, and also the kind of good work they are doing.

All the trustees were present last evening with exception of President List whose business detained him, and Trustee Ashley Robinson who is confined with illness at his home on Clay street, but is much better. The session was held at the Washington building on West Broadway, and each of the twenty-five applications were gone over and the reference and recommendations closely examined, with result that six were at last picked out. The three outsiders reside quite a distance away, but the trustees will not divulge their place of residence until the proper time.

The board will not elect any one to supersede Mr. Lieb at the regular March meeting the first Tuesday in that month, as the outsiders can hardly get their letters, inviting them to come here, and reach the city for a final conference so the election can be held next month. It is about certain that the superintendent will not be named until April.

The trustees have about thirty applications in from parties wanting to be principal at the high school, succeeding Professor Payne, who is not a candidate for re-election, as he goes to Germany this summer to remain two years studying at the leading colleges there. The trustees will not select this principal until about April or May, none of those applications being gone over last night, all being laid to one side for later consideration. It is understood that one of the principals now in will be superseded by some other when the elections are held.

Professor Cheek, superintendent of the Fulton, Ky., schools had an interview several days ago in the Fulton Leader, in which he was quoted as saying he had not applied for the superintendency of the Paducah schools and his friends were advising him not to on account of the alleged political chaotic condition here. The learned gentleman is wrong about any chaotic condition now, as the first of this year a board went in that is running the schools itself, and the subordinates from superintendent down are toing the mark and not allowed to inject any politics into the schools. Furthermore, say several of the trustees, Professor Cheek has applied several times for the position, coming here personally in January and seeking the place, while Secretary Byrd has his written application of February 2, wherein Mr. Cheek says he believes he can convince the Paducah board he is "the right man" for the superintendency. His persuasive powers must not be very strong in the convincing line, as he is not being even considered in connection with the place.

Into Alleged Embezzlement of $66,000 At Evansville.

Evansville, Ind., Feb. 19.—The grand jury Tuesday began to probe into alleged embezzlement of $66,000 from the treasury of Vanderberg county.

Former County Treasurer John P. Walker and County Auditor Stinson were summoned to appear before the jury today. Members of the auditing committee who discovered the shortage will also be subpoenaed.

HARRIMAN GOBBLES UP COTTON BELT RAILROAD

Will Give Him an Air-Line from Chicago and St. Louis to Galveston.

Memphis, Tenn., Feb. 19.—Semi-official information here is to the effect that E. H. Harriman has obtained control of the Cotton Belt, giving him an air line between Chicago and St. Louis to Galveston by connecting with the Illinois Central at Thebes, Ill.

The deal puts him in position to squeeze Gould's Texas & Pacific in Texas at the proper time and will put him in full control of the situation in the Southwestern territory.
